

Top Reasons to Open a Donor Advised Fund with the Shalom Austin Jewish Foundation

- 1 Gifts That Keep on Giving
Money in your fund is invested with the returns coming back to your fund, thus giving you more money to donate.
- 2 Your Donation, Your Choice
Direct donations to any non-profit organization: your alma mater, your synagogue, Jewish and non-Jewish organizations, charities in the US and Israel.
- 3 All in Your Family
You can add your children as fund managers, teaching them about tzedakah.
- 4 Making Taxes Easy to Manage
Making one gift to your Jewish Foundation fund makes doing the charitable giving part of your taxes easy.
- 5 Ups, Downs and Consistent Giving
Having a windfall year? You can put that money into your donor advised fund and then distribute it over multiple years.

We Understand How Important This Decision Is...

$150 Million in Asset Pools

Invested alongside Austin Community Foundation (ACF)

Variety of Assets Accepted

Cash, stock, real estate & more

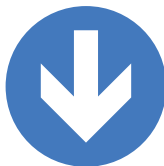

Easy to Use Website

Give, track and personalize your donations to new and recurring organizations at your convenience

Low Management Fees ≤ 1%

A portion of your fee supports the Jewish Foundation

Strategic Investments

Option for funds to be invested; a range of strategies available

Consider Leaving Your Legacy

The Future

Make a difference forever; endowments are the lifeblood for the future of Jewish organizations

Community

Give back to the community that enriched your life and perpetuate your traditions and values

Your Passion

Continue to support specific organizations that have a special place in your heart

Always There

Support and sustain your community in both good and hard economic times